

The Hospital at Hebrew Senior Care
Plain Language Summary
Financial Assistance for The Hospital at Hebrew Senior Care

Financial Assistance- The Hospital at Hebrew Senior Care (HHSC) is committed to providing health care services to all persons in need of medical attention. HHSC will provide financial assistance to qualifying patients who are unable to pay some or all of their medical services, under its Financial Assistance Program Policy.

Uninsured / Underinsured Patients / Hardship Situations- A 100% discount for all medically necessary procedures is available to qualified patients with income less than 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, when no other means of assistance is available. Each case is reviewed individually, and partial discounts up to 25% may also be available for patients with income greater than 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, or in the case of extreme hardship.

Terms may also be made available to patients who are unable to pay their financial responsibility, and do not qualify under the Financial Assistance Program.

Application Process- Applications are available on the website at www.hebrewseniorcare.org, in the Admission packet, or by contacting the Financial Services office at 860-523-3909.
